

‘All That Matters To Me’ is an example of how artists working together can accomplish extraordinary things. This is a one-night event showcasing emerging artists working in developmental mediums. Applications for ‘All that Matters To Me’ are now being accepted. Please send application requirements to: allthatmatterstome2012@yahoo.com. The application deadline is May 14, 2012.

Application Requirements:

- Name
- Address
- E-mail
- Phone
- Website (if applicable)
- 3-5 images of past work (72 dpi)
- A short proposal of the work you wish to install including estimated dimensions, concept, and materials. All mediums can be submitted for review. The raw industrial space is ideal for site-specific installation. The availability of white walls is extremely limited. If accepted, please keep your work close to your proposal.

A committee of local artists will review all applications. If you are accepted into the ‘All That Matters To Me’ exhibition, you will be notified after May 21st, 2012. There is a non-refundable $40 fee if accepted into the show. This fee helps cover show costs and must be collected by June 15th at the latest.

Although it is not the main objective of the show, ‘All That Matters To Me’ is a non-profit event, therefore no commission will be taken for sold works. Art work can be installed the day before (June 22nd, 9am - 12am) and the day of the show (June 23rd, 9am - 6pm). Plan your time accordingly to ensure space is used in the most effective manner possible. Each individual is liable for themselves and the care of their work. Tools and assistance will not be provided. After the show, artists are responsible for returning the space to its original condition. All work must be removed by 7pm on Sunday, June 24.
